Register yourself as safe and well after a disaster

The American Red Cross has created the Safe and Well Website to help families keep in touch after a disaster.

If you have been affected by a disaster, this website provides a way for you to register yourself as “safe and well.” From a list of standard messages, you can select those that you want to communicate to your family members, letting them know of your well-being.

Concerned family and friends can search the list of those who have registered themselves as “safe and well.” The results of a successful search will display a loved one’s First Name, Last Name, an “As of Date”, and the “safe and well” messages selected.

Other family communication services available on the Safe and Well website are:

National Center for Missing & Exploited Children

www.ncmec.org

Serves as the nation's clearing house on issues related to missing and exploited children. Under a US Department of Justice directive, operated a call center during Hurricane Katrina and helped locate and reunify missing children with their families.

USPS

www.usps.gov

Provides continuing mail service for those displaced by disasters through change of address forms. Submitting a change of address form through the USPS ensures that mail will be redirected to a current address.

National Next of Kin Registry

www.nokr.org

An organization where the public can archive emergency point of contact information. Emergency agencies access the system when there is a need to locate next of kin in urgent situations.

Community Voice Mail

www.cvm.org

Provides free personalized phone number with voicemail to people in crisis and transition for job search, housing, healthcare and family contact. Current service in 38 cities via a network of 2,000+ social service agencies.

Contact Loved Ones

www.contactlovedones.org

Provides a free voice message service, accessible from any phone, to reestablish contact between those affected by a disaster and their loved ones and friends.
